House Bill No. 1815

By deleting SECTION 4, § 4-5-108, and by substituting instead the following:

§ 4-5-108.

(a) Any legislation that, in whole or in part, amends or repeals any provision of this chapter; or any legislation that reestablishes, restructures or otherwise delegates any type of rulemaking authority to any new or pre-existing governmental entity to which this chapter applies, shall be referred to the government operations committee by the speaker of each house if such legislation is first approved by the appropriate standing committee, either with or without amendment. The government operations committee of each house shall then review the legislation and shall recommend that the legislation be considered for passage or shall recommend against passage to the appropriate house.

(b) Except when the government operations committee is designated as the appropriate standing committee, nothing contained in the provisions of this section shall be construed to authorize the government operations committee to delay or prevent consideration of such legislation by the appropriate house by withholding its recommendation.

(c) Nothing contained within the provisions of this chapter shall be construed to prevent the government operations committee from being considered as an appropriate standing committee to consider legislation that amends or repeals any provision of this chapter.
